Dear Sir or Madam,

Conservation International Foundation (hereinafter referred to as “Conservation International”), is issuing a Request for Proposals (RFP) for Developing a Case Study on Gender Mainstreaming of a CI-GEF Project in Liberia. The attached RFP contains all the necessary information for interested Offerors.

In response to the threat to mangrove forests and at the request of the Government of Liberia, the Global Environment Facility (GEF) approved a project (GEF ID 5712) for Liberia titled “Improve sustainability of mangrove forests and coastal mangrove areas in Liberia through protection, planning and livelihood creation – as a building block towards Liberia’s marine and coastal protected areas”. The project sought to strengthen the conservation and sustainable use of globally important mangrove forests in Liberia through the establishment of coastal protected areas and effective participatory land-use planning through the following two components:

- Component 1: Enabling conditions for establishment of coastal protected areas in 20% of priority mangrove forests (15% as National Protected Areas and 5% as community Conserved Mangrove Forest)
- Component 2: Reducing pressures in an additional 15% of priority forest areas through integrated land-use planning, improving local community livelihoods and increasing stakeholders’ capacity and awareness.

Following the survey and initial stakeholder consultations, the northern coast of Liberia was selected for project implementation. Specifically, the mangroves and communities located in the Lake Piso, Marshall, Monrovia, and Buchanan areas.

As part of the requirements of the project, gender had to be mainstreamed throughout the project to ensure that both men and women have the opportunity to equally participate in, and benefit from, the project. As such, the project prepared and implemented a Gender Mainstreaming Plan. The project is nearing completion and the CI-GEF Agency would like to document outcomes and lessons learned in order to understand the impacts of the project on closing gender gaps, and identifying what lessons should be applied to similar GEF projects.

Offerors should indicate their interest in submitting a proposal for the anticipated agreement by sending an email indicating their intention to cigef@conservation.org by January 31, 2020, 9 AM EST. Interested Offerors can submit their questions to cigef@conservation.org
All offerors are expected to exercise the highest standards of conduct in preparing, submitting and if selected, eventually carrying out the specified work and in accordance with CI’s Code of Ethics.

Conservation International’s reputation derives from our commitment to our values: Integrity, Respect, Courage, Optimism, Passion and Teamwork. CI’s Code of Ethics (the “Code”) provides guidance to CI employees, service providers, experts, interns, and volunteers in living CI’s core values, and outlines minimum standards for ethical conduct which all parties must adhere to.

Offerors are required to sign a representation of Transparency, Integrity, Environmental and Social Responsibility.

Any violation of the Code of Ethics, as well as concerns regarding the integrity of the procurement process and documents should be reported to CI via its Ethics Hotline at www.ci.ethicspoint.com.

In the event that any one or more of the provisions contained herein shall, for any reason, be held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability shall not affect any other provisions of this Agreement, but this Agreement shall be construed as if such invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions had never been contained herein, unless the deletion of such provision or provisions would result in such a material change so as to cause completion of the transactions contemplated herein to be unreasonable.

19. No Third-Party Beneficiaries. Except as expressly set forth herein, neither party intends that this Agreement shall benefit or create any right or cause of action in or on behalf of any person or entity other than the Service Provider and CI.

CI will promptly investigate any grievances submitted to the CI Ethics Hotline. CI will treat complaints as confidential to the extent possible, with the understanding that confidentiality may not be maintained where identification is required by law or to enable CI or law enforcement to conduct an adequate investigation. Service Provider shall not retaliate against any employee or other person who submit such grievances in good faith. Retaliation is subject to termination of this Agreement and other sanctions, including ineligibility of Service Provider to submit future proposals to CI for GEF-related activities. Service Provider hereby expressly binds itself to include language substantially reflecting the terms of this provision in all sub-contracts and sub-awards issued under this Agreement.

22. Waiver. Either party may specifically waive any rights under this Agreement by the other party, but no such waiver shall be deemed effective unless in writing, signed by the waiving party, and specifically designating the rights waived. No waiver shall constitute a continuing waiver of similar or other rights.

CI's CODE OF ETHICS

Conservation International’s reputation derives from our commitment to our core values: Integrity, Respect, Courage, Optimism, and Passion and Teamwork. CI’s Code of Ethics (the “Code”) provides guidance to CI employees, service providers, experts, interns, and volunteers in living CI’s core values, and outlines minimum standards for ethical conduct which all parties must adhere to.

Any violations of the Code of Ethics should be reported to CI via its Ethics Hotline at www.ci.ethicspoint.com.

CI relies on the personal integrity, good judgment and common sense of all third parties acting on behalf, or providing services to the organization, to deal with issues not expressly addressed by the Code or as noted below.

Integrity:
- Act in good faith, responsibly, with due care, competence and diligence and maintain the highest professional standards at all times.
- Comply with all contractual terms as well as all applicable laws, rules and regulations, domestic and international, in every country where CI works.
- Reflect actual expenses or work performed in expense reports, timesheets, and other records.
- Never engage in any of the following acts: falsification of business document or receipts, theft, embezzlement, diversion of funds, bribery, or fraud.

Transparency:
- Perform duties, exercise authority and use CI resources and assets in the interest of the organization and never for personal benefit.
- Avoid conflicts of interest and not allow independent judgment to be compromised.
- Not accept gifts or favors in excess of $150 from vendors, consultants, or grantees.

Accountability:
- Disclose to a supervisor and the General Counsel’s Office, at the earliest opportunity, any information you have or become aware of, that may result in a real or perceived conflict of interest or impropriety.
- Exercise responsible stewardship over CI’s assets and resources; spend funds wisely, in the best interests of CI and in furtherance of its mission. Adhere to and respect the wishes of its donors.
- Manage programs, activities, staff and operations in a professionally sound manner, with knowledge and wisdom, and with a goal of increasing overall organizational performance.

Confidentiality:
- Not disclose confidential or sensitive information obtained during the course of your work with CI.
- Protect confidential relationships between CI and its grantees, donors and vendors.

Mutual Respect and Collaboration:
- Assist its partners in building the necessary capacity to carry out conservation programs efficiently and effectively and to manage funds in a fiscally and operationally prudent manner.
- Create constructive relationships with grant-seekers and other partners based on mutual respect and shared goals by communicating clearly and timely and respecting our partners’ expertise in their field of knowledge.
- Engage with indigenous peoples and local communities in which CI works in a positive and constructive manner that respects the culture, laws, and practices of those communities, with due regard for the right of free, prior and informed consent.

I hereby acknowledge receipt of CI’s Code of Ethics and certify agreement and compliance therewith.
