Join Us to Celebrate the Opening of

35 Wonders of the World

An Exhibition of Images from Biodiversity Hotspots by Some of the World’s Premier Nature Photographers

Cocktail Reception

Sunday
November 16, 2014
7 - 9:30 p.m.

Lion Gate Lodge at Royal Botanic Gardens, Mrs Macquaries Rd, Sydney, Australia

RSVP to rsvp@cepf.net

Transportation from Olympic Park: Private buses will depart at 6 p.m. (sharp) to transport guests to the Royal Botanic Gardens from Eus Stop B, Dawn Fraser Ave, located between Showground Road & Australia Ave. (opposite Abattoir Blues Café).

Return Transport: Private buses will depart from the Royal Botanic Gardens at 9.30 p.m. to transport guests to Olympic Park. Please note: Buses will depart at the scheduled time. Capacity is strictly limited.

Exhibit Location: Royal Botanic Garden Sydney, along Macquaries Road (between Lion Gate Lodge, Henry Lawson Gate and Victoria Gate). The photo exhibit will be on display November 11 - December 8, 2014.

The AFD and CEPF would like to thank the Royal Botanic Gardens and Domain Trust for hosting the exhibition.

Featuring:

His Excellency Xavier Sticker, French Ambassador for Environment
Kim Ellis, Executive Director, Sydney Parklands and Botanic Gardens
Julia Marton-Lefèvre, Director General of the International Union for Conservation of Nature (IUCN)
Gustavo Fonseca, Director of Programs, Global Environment Facility
Jean-Luc François, Head of the Agriculture, Rural Development and Biodiversity Division at l’Agence Française de Développement (AFD)
Patricia Zurita, Executive Director of the Critical Ecosystem Partnership Fund (CEPF)